Join Carolyn Dorfman Dance for the fifth annual Dance Union Festival – a celebration of the unique and diverse dance community across Union County. The festival features a variety of events throughout the spring for dance students, professionals, and patrons alike!

With special guest artist Karen Love (Umoja Dance Company), this class uses energy and full body movement to explore dance and music from the African Diaspora. Open Level.

The class is free, but registration is required. Free and open to the public. Dance studio directors may submit one registration on behalf of their studio.
