This new program is open to both returning and new students anywhere in the U.S. and includes a diverse lineup of one-week dance intensives for children ages 9 to 18 years old at all skill levels (plus an evening class for adults, too!).

Taking place July 13-17 and July 20-24, the intensive programs allow students to choose from a number of 1-hour courses delivered daily, Monday through Friday, during which they will be immersed in an exploration of the dance style or theme of the course. Each 5-day intensive course will culminate in a live online performance on the final day.

Dancing Classrooms NYC is proud to partner with its affiliates in territories across the U.S. to offer these classes to students at a weekly rate of $125/course, and families can build a schedule with multiple classes per day, with sibling discounts and package rates available as well.
