a HILARIOUS MUSICAL REVUE about what it really takes to be a DIVA Join us for an evening filled with laughter, music and dance as we celebrate the legendary Divas de España / Spanish Divas. Inma Heredia will enthusiastically transport us in time for a unique experience and one that will leave us smiling. Synopsis: The Queen of Spanish comedy in New York celebrates the goddesses of yesteryear and their music that inspired her obsession with acting, singing and dancing. From classic chanteuse ROCIO JURADO and the icy silver screen glamour of SARA MONTIEL, to the coquettish flamboyance of CHARO and the flamenco tour de force of LOLA FLORES, this is INMA's passionate tribute to the extraordinary women who fueled her own journey towards becoming a Spanish Diva of comedy, song and dance herself. Performed in English with Spanish songs Written and Performed by Inma Heredia Directed by Adolfo Vazquez Nearest subway: 7 line to 40th St-Lowery
