Bram Stoker's classic novel comes to life with the best of the NYC dance scene! With a carefully curated musical score of the greatest classical composers, (Mahler, Shostakovich, Saint Saiens, Verdi, Beethoven) CityDanceNY will tell this tale of passion, lust and blood!

The story closely follows the novel from Transylvania to the social scene in London and back again to the Roma heartland of Romania. The journal entries of Lucy Westerna, Mina Murray, Abraham Van Helsing, and Jonathan Harker are all brought to life with the classical vocabulary of ballet.

Performances are October 18-19 at 7pm. Tickets can be found at Eventbrite.com search Dracula or email CityDanceNY@gmail.com to save the processing fee. $35, $25 Senior/Student discount
