"Gardens can be places of conflicting manifestations - beauty and horror, birth and death, hope and disappointment - one never knows what lurks behind the next hedge." Internationally renowned choreographer Dušan Týnek ("Big, musical, full-bodied dancing... beauty abounded" - Deborah Jowitt, ArtsJournal) creates a highly kinetic evening-length work for 6 dancers with an original score and live performance by the acclaimed composer Aleksandra Vrebalov. A surrealistic homage to the middle panel of The Garden of Earthly Delights by H. Bosch
