I'm smitten with devotion. With task. The everyday thing(s) you do because you must. I asked a handful of performers to record themselves in these devotional tasks and am splicing them into a livestream of my own rehearsing, directing, and glimpses into my own recent "dailiness." This in-progress glimpse of EPOCH will broadcast via Twitch from 12:00 PM-12:00 Midnight on Saturday, May 22nd. With new, original scores by composer Cheryl Leonard and Production Design by Danielle Ferguson. It's an expectant precursor to the live performance of EPOCH that premieres on October 2nd at San Francisco's ODC Theater.
