

OUR NEW YORK CITY DANCE

March 13 - April 3, 2019

EVDOL 075 - Spring Dance at Juilliard: Legacy, Memory, Inspiration

Company: Juilliard Venue: The Juilliard School - Evening Division

Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

2 N ≈ 95% 2 10:17 PM In this behind-the-scenes class, students learn about the choreographers and works to be performed as part of works to be performed as part of Juilliard's Spring Dance production. This year, masterworks by the legendary Martha Graham (Rite of Spring) and by Bill T. Jones (D-Man in the Waters), one of the Jones (U-Man in the Waters), one of the leading contemporary American choreographers, are paired with the wit and theatricality of Spanishborn Alejandro Cerrudo (Little Mortal Jump). Students also attend a rehearsal and get to see the opening night of the Juilliard Spring Dance performance on March 27. On other evenings student dancers visit the class and share their dancers visit the class and share their experience about the process of learning and performing the dances. Attendees are encouraged to write their own review. A ticket to the Juilliard Dances Repertory performance on Wednesday, March 27 at 7:30pm is included.

4 weeks Wednesday 5:30 - 7pm March 13 - April 3

4-class course that gives background to Juilliard's Spring Dance Performances. Ticket to show included. Instructor: Henning RA?bsam

60 Lincoln Center Plaza Entrance on 65th Street New York, NY, 10023 2127995000

Schedule March 13, 2019: 5:30pm March 20, 2019: 5:30pm March 27, 2019: 5:30pm April 3, 2019: 5:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing