

February 24 - March 1, 2015

Evidence Celebrates 30 years February 24-March 1 in NYC with live music from Jason Moran and The Bandwagon

Company: Evidence, A Dance Company
Venue: The Joyce Theater
Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Basil Childers

Ronald K. Brown and Evidence, A Dance Company ushers in its 30th year with a company premiere, New York premiere, live music and revivals of classic works. The week-long run features two programs. Program A highlights include the powerful classic Grace and The Subtle One, danced to a suite composed and performed live by Jason Moran. Moran, score composer for the Oscar-nominated film "Selma" and Kennedy Center's Artistic Director for Jazz, will be joined by his band, The Bandwagon. Program B highlights include the New York premiere of ThroughTime and Culture, a solo by Brown, along with the company premiere of Why You Follow/For Que Sigues.

Evidence, A Dance Company
175 Eighth Avenue at 19th Street
New York, NY, 10011
212-242-0800
<http://www.joyce.org>

Schedule
February 5, 2015: 8:00pm

< back

previous listing • next listing