Movement Research, one of the world's leading laboratories for the investigation of dance and movement-based forms, returns to Danspace Project with its annual Fall Festival.

The Movement Research Festival Fall 2014, curated by Rebecca Brooks, Daria Faïn, and Shelley Senter, will feature acclaimed experimentalists, highlighting and juxtaposing their varied investigations into the artistic currents of dance and performance. The Festival will also include additional events during the week of November 30 - December 7, as well as workshops taught by Festival artists.
