New York City Center's 11th annual Fall for Dance Festival will feature free performances in Central Park and 24 acclaimed dance companies and artists from around the world, in six unique programs in September and October 2014. In keeping with the Festival's commitment to make dance accessible to everyone, the Festival will kick off with two free evenings of dance at the Delacorte Theater in Central Park, in association with The Public Theater, on September 12–13 (rain date, September 14) and will continue at City Center from October 8–19. The Festival's many free pre-show events will include dance lessons and panels by choreographers, artists and dance educators.
