Celebrate the LOVE between a father and his daughter this Valentine's weekend at Ailey Extension. Create new memories together at Father-Daughter West African Workshop by spending quality time on the dance floor with the one you love.

The class will focus on traditional dances from West Africa within a context of music and oral tradition. Students will learn dances which celebrate the many facets of life in West Africa such as: rites of passage, festive and ceremonial occasions. They will build strength, improve stamina and gain confidence. The musical accompaniment is the Djembe Orchestra.a??

Open to adults and children 10+
