Gloria McLean teaches Hawkins-Based Modern Dance Technique

at Randy Warshaw Studio, 115 Wooster Street between Prince & Spring

Tuesdays 6-7:30 and Thursdays 6:30-8 $20/single; $165/10-class card

Former lead dancer & rehearsal director with Erick Hawkins from 1982-1993 before his death in 1994, McLean is a major internationally recognized exponent of this important Modern dance legacy. While extending the work through original choreography with her company LIFEDANCE, her teaching authentically embodies the principles and aesthetic spirit of the Hawkins technique, relating floor work, ideokinesis, rhythmicity, postural integration, and heaps of delicious movement. Classes are ongoing (no class Aug. 25-Sept. 5). Contact: Gloria.mclean@earthlink.net or 212-874-6947
