Dancewave
Transforming lives through dance

After nearly 25 years in its original location at 45 4th Ave, Dancewave will open a brand new studio and community center, the New Dancewave Center at 182 4th Ave in Gowanus, Brooklyn.

The new 3,600 square foot Dancewave Center will triple Dancewave's current size, expanding our programming capabilities for the future. Studio Joseph's design converted the industrial space into a LEED-certified arts facility, complete with two dance studios that open to a performance space with the capacity for 100 occupants.

Join us to kick off a month-long celebration of this historic moment in Dancewave's history.
