

FOR AUDIENCES

Community Calendar | Volunteering

Sunday, April 22, 2018

HOW DO WE PREPARE FOR TRUMP'S SECOND TERM?

Company: New York Live Arts
 Venue: New York Live Arts Studios
 Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

In a remarkably short span of time, President Donald J. Trump has transformed our culture. His achievement is not measured in his ability to build a border wall, heighten mass incarceration, impose a travel ban, or launch a military strike against North Korea. It is that these ideas are now seriously discussed and debated, when two years ago that would have been impossible. Do progressives have a viable and strategic response to his next presidential campaign? Are artists key to helping shape that response? Multimedia artist/ film maker/activist Betty Yu and other artists will discuss these questions and others. Moderated by writer, actor, producer, activist Tanya Selvaratnam.

New York Live Arts
 219 W 19th Street
 New York, NY, 10011
<https://newyorklivearts.org/event/trumps-second-term/>

Schedule
 April 22, 2018: 3:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing