Hand in Hand is a captivating interdisciplinary performance by musician/perfumer Joey Rosin and dancer/choreographer Hannah Wagner. Blending live music, movement, and scent, the show features two interwoven yet distinct pieces:

"IN EACH PASSING MOMENT..." – A saxophonist and dancer explore the fleeting nature of relationships and the lasting imprints they leave behind. "continual becoming" – A quintet of dancers and a quartet of musicians navigate themes of growth, change, and transformation.
