Hubbard Street Dance Chicago's (HSDC) 14-member troupe is one of the few contemporary repertory companies to continually tour in the U.S. and abroad. After celebrating National Dance Day in 2020 with SummerStage Anywhere, HSDC brings their company to New York City, live and in-person. They'll perform highlights from Season 44: RE/CHARGE, a work that acknowledges the experiences of the past two years and forges ahead. Founded in 1977 by Lou Conte and now in its 44th year, the company is led by Artistic Director Linda-Denise Fisher-Harrell, a former dancer in the company.
