

Thursday, July 19, 2018

If There Were A Moon

Company: Alice Farley Dance Theater

Venue: Madison Square Park

Location: NY, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Fernando Azevedo

The Madison Square Park Conservancy presents the Alice Farley Dance Theater in Farley's "If There Were A Moon," a dance of gesture and image designed to conjure moonlight by day. Farley's unique works combine magic and circus with puppetry, elaborate surreal visuals, and dance. The company of 10 will be joined by extraordinary artist and Sufi teacher Felicia Norton, and will perform among the exhibit of sculptures by Diana Al-Hadid entitled "Delirious Matter." For the original score, Farley has once again collaborated with composer Peter Garland.

Alice Farley Dance Theater
24th St. & Madison Avenue
NY, NY, 10010
646.643.0694

Schedule
July 19, 2018: 7:00pm

< back

previous listing • next listing