Folk:

Lavani (Marathi): is a genre of music popular in Maharashtra, one of the Eastern states. Lavani is a combination of traditional song and dance, which particularly performed to the beats of Dholki, a percussion instrument. Lavani is noted for its powerful rhythm. Lavani has contributed substantially to the development of Marathi folk theatre.

Folk:

Manjira is a traditional percussion instrument of India. In its simplest form, it is a pair of small hand cymbals. It is also known as taal, jalra, khartal or Gini.

They often accompany folk or devotional music. It is used in various religious ceremonies of India, especially bhajans. The manjira is an ancient instrument.

Manjira are usually made of bronze, brass, copper zinc or Bell metal and they produce a rhythmic tinkling sound when struck together. Dancers continue with Manjira with varieties of actions and modes by getting up, sitting, standing, and turning.

Bollywood Fusion: Will learn one dance with bollywood and folk dance fusion for a popular bollywood song.
