After a very successful spring offering of online Isadora Duncan classes, we will be extending our offerings into the summer. All ages, all levels of abilities, new dancers welcome to experience this unique dance class for the soul. Experience a gentle, flowing warm-up for the body and the spirit, creative improvisations, basic Duncan movement technique, and explorations into Duncan dance studies and works. Tap into your connection to nature, universal emotions and individual strength, and express through movement.

Offered weekly by Beth Jucovy, lifelong Duncan practitioner, artistic director of Dance Visions NY
