This fellowship is a tribute to the life and work of renowned Chinese American actress, dancer, comedienne, and advocate Jadin Wong. Ms. Wong was a lifelong pioneer and innovator in the field of performing arts and strove to ensure opportunitues for Asian Americans through her efforts as a performer and talent agent.

This year's fellowship is intended to recognize a New York City-based, emerging Asian American dance artist (born on or after 5/1/90) whose work shows strong potential for greater achievement and who hopes to make a significant impact on the New York City artistic community. The fellowship aims to recognize exemplary work that will continue to inspire young artists and the Asian American community for years to come. The fellow will receive a cash award of $6,000, career assistance, professional development training, and support to help them create new work and pursue their career in the field of dance.

The Jadin Wong Fellowship is made possible with support from the New York Community Trust.
