JohnsonJaxxonJefferson, a new performance work by Niall Jones, is a site breach, a collapsing of memories, sensations, and bodily coordinates — a dance and its noises, moving from one place to another operating, in parts, as a system of continuous retrieval.

LET ME HELP YOU

SHOW ME

ANOTHER WAY

TO BE A disarrangement of hallucinatory maternal presences indeterminacy &dissonant structures crashed.symbols (failed)(flailed) images chatter repetition but what about the choir sound [ing] was mainly our dreaming knowingly and unknowingly caressing loss as a conceit while specters haunt the church's architecture.

The Church Sexton:

- Sits, stands, bends, reaches and moves intermittently during work.
- Is subject to frequent interruptions.
- Works beyond normal hours for planned functions of the church and emergencies.
- Communicates with supervisor and other church staff, volunteers, members and guests.
- Is exposed to slippery conditions, odors, outside weather conditions, etc.
- Keeps whistling.

Improvisation is key*
