Study with the renowned Danza Contemporánea de Cuba in Havana this summer! Join dancers from around the United States and travel as a part of an MJM Dance Fellowship to partake in a 2 week, 10 day technique, choreography, and pedagogy intensive. In addition to the Danza Contemporánea de Cuba course, the fellowship includes: trip preparation zooms with suggested readings and an online dance course; special evening and weekend dance classes (Salsa, Rumba, Reggaeton); a trip to Varadero Beach, considered one of the most beautiful in the Caribbean; accommodations within walking distance of Teatro Nacional, and taxis to and from the airport.

Application extended to May 30th!
