Kaatsbaan Cultural Park announces Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company's production of Collage Revisited(2025) and STORY/, which play during the company's 2025 Annual Festival. The show runs for three performances on August 30 at 2pm and 7pm and August 31 at 2 pm. The 2025 Annual Festival includes thoughtful offerings and original performances by artists innovating in dance, music, film, archiving, storytelling, and more, featuring Nichole Canuso, Deborah Hay, Ayodele Casel, Kayla Farrish, Lori Goldston, among others! Tickets for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company performances are $45 for general admission and $25 with a student ID, available here.

In Collage Revisited, the full company revisits The History of Collage, the last collaboration between Bill T. Jones and Arnie Zane before Arnie's death. Originally created in 1988, the remounting is part of a legacy project for the company—looking back to look forward. Kaatsbaan audiences will experience a preview of the first time Collage will be performed in over 20 years. The piece recalls the excitement the two artists shared as they set out to reconsider dance spectacle during the 1980s art scene. Collage Revisited blends dance, music, and spoken word, exploring themes of identity. STORY/, a work conceived and directed by Bill T. Jones from 2013, has been added to the program.

On Saturday, August 30, 3–7 pm, Samosa Shack food truck, an Hudson Valley favorite at some of the busiest farm & flea markets, pop-ups, and catered events, will be on site at Kaatsbaan. Samosa Shack uses Hudson Valley farm-fresh, seasonal ingredients to bring handcrafted, plant-based, Indian-inspired deliciousness to the beautiful surroundings of Kaatsbaan on its opening weekend! Vegan/Vegetarian/GF covered by options listed.

Funding is made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature. This project is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts.

About Kaatsbaan Cultural Park

The mission of Kaatsbaan Cultural Park is to provide an extraordinary environment for cultural innovation and excellence by providing artists at any stage of their careers with creative residencies at state-of-the-art facilities, and presenting audiences and communities with annual festivals, educational programs, and seasonal events. As both an incubator for creativity and presenter for world-class artists in dance, theater, music, film, spoken and written word, and culinary and visual arts, Kaatsbaan provides artists with state-of-the-art dance studios, accommodations, an indoor theater, and outdoor stages. Sited on 153 Hudson River-adjacent acres, Kaatsbaan is free of urban facilities' space and time constraints, allowing for exciting levels of artistic exploration, creative action, and achievement—just two hours north of New York City.

Kaatsbaan Cultural Park is committed to the advancement of diversity, equity, and inclusion in the arts as we aim to present, promote, and embrace programming that accurately reflects our society. We encourage a broadly diverse group of individuals to participate in our programs and join our Board and Staff, and insist on being inclusive of all peoples regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, socio-economic background, or physical or mental ability.
