? Opening Party

? BROOKLYN | @therepmusiccafe w/ DJs @shawndub365 & @benhixon

From Long Beach to Brooklyn, @ShawnDub365 has been shaping dancefloors since the early 2000s. After landing in NYC in 2011, he became a trusted voice in the underground scene, bringing deep, genre-blurring to The Lot Radio, Public Records, and beyond, with set sets spanning house, hip-hop, techno, and more. Whether behind the decks or curating at Brooklyn's Human Head Records, Shawn always carries with him heart, history, and soul.

@BenHixon is a Dallas-born musician, producer, engineer, and DJ, now based in Brooklyn, NY. With a background steeped in jazz, he transitioned into dance music and co-founded Dolfin Records, a self-described collective and label that spans free jazz, experimental R&B, rock, rap, and house/techno.

He's released music through outlets like New Math Records, putting out multiple albums and EPs blending jazz sensibilities with electronic textures. Ben also performs live, DJing and playing synth/guitar alongside groups like theMIND and Blaque Dynamite, and hosts mixes on platforms ranging from The Lot Radio to SXSW-setting stages.

? Tickets only $10!
