July 1st- July 12th. This workshop is open to teachers and graduates of teaching programs. It is also open to dancers trained in the Humphrey/Limon tradition who are interested in learning to teach the technique. It is designed to guide each participant to find an individual approach to Limon-based teaching. The program will include daily technique classes, an exploration of the underlying principles, phrases from repertory (contemporary and classic) and the use of rhythm and music in Limon classes. Participants have opportunities to present class materials and contemporary dance phrases.
