On May 14th, 2022, MDP will present several new ballets live in a theater for the first time. This concert, MDP | New Visions, highlights innovative and diverse world premieres created for McKoy Dance Project. The company will premiere three works by Derick McKoy, Jr, Mikaela S. Brandon, and Christian A. Warner. Derick McKoy, Jr's dynamic and empowering work, Hush, will also be a part of the program this year. Join MDP live and in-person or virtually to enjoy impactful and diverse stories through dance and conversation. Following the in-person concert, MDP | New Visions will be made available for virtual viewers to experience the joys of dance from the comfort of their homes.
