Marnie Thomos' advanced-professional level Graham class will focus on the contrasting dynamics of breath, spiral, oppositional as well as contraction and release. This 90-minute Master Class will begin with basic warm-up exercises on the floor and standing, and will culminate in a traveling phrase from the repertory of Martha Graham.

Marnie Thomas joined the Martha Graham Dance Company in 1958. In 1968, she co-founded the Dance Major at University of California Berkeley with her husband David Wood. She continues to serve on the dance faculty of the Graham School, where she was Director from 2003 to 2006. She is also on the faculty of Adelphi University.
