Matthew Westerby Company presents its third NYC season, November 9-12, 2017. Presented at the Hudson Guild Theatre in Chelsea, the season includes the premiere of "The Letters Project," a unique collaboration with composer Bryan Senti.

The performance will feature live performance of this new score, a dynamic but moving exploration of family, identity and trauma, performed by the seven performers from MWC. The season will also include MWC repertory works and special guest performances by two different youth dance performances from Covenant Ballet Theatre of Brooklyn (Thursday/Saturday) and Rivertown Dance Academy (Friday/Sunday).
