MorDance is excited to announce its highly anticipated Spring Season performances at New York Live Arts, presented nightly Thursday, May 9th to Saturday, May 11th at 8:00 PM. After a successful first run in Yonkers, MorDance will bring its captivating ballets to the heart of New York City for an unforgettable experience.

Led by renowned choreographer Morgan McEwen and enhanced by the masterful lighting design of Becky Heisler, the program features a series of spellbinding ballets that promise to ignite the senses and stir the soul. "On The Waterfront" pays homage to the legendary Leonard Bernstein, breathing new life into his iconic score and celebrating the transformative power of dance and music in collaboration. "Depths Entangled" invites audiences on a captivating journey through the intricacies of the human experience, delving into the profound connections we forge with one another. Finally, "Echoes of Silence" entwines music from the folk movement with meditations on social change, urging spectators to squarely face the repercussions of societal fractures.

Join us for an evening of artistic exploration and community as MorDance presents its Spring Season performances at New York Live Arts. Your attendance not only supports the arts but adds a special touch to the unfolding story of MorDance. We can't wait to share this unique and inspiring journey with you!
