Mimi Garrard of Mimi Garrard Dance Theatre is proud to announce several awards for her recent work, including a lifetime achievement award from the Institute of Arts and Letters in Mississippi for her outstanding achievement in dance both for video and for the stage, and a Distinguished Alumnae Award from Sweet Briar College. As her experimental vision with digital techniques has grown, Mimi's work has gained increased attention - and multiple plaudits. Recently, her films have been presented internationally on television, in museums and galleries, and in festivals. Her work has lately been shown on the dome of the planetarium in Jackson, Mississippi, and on the BBC BIG screen throughout England. Over the course of the last three years, Mimi has participated in 1660 international festivals and has won 927 first place awards. Mimi Garrard has a half hour monthly television program on Manhattan Neighborhood Network in Manhattan, New York that is streamed live at the time of broadcast (243 programs to date). The next program is Sunday, September 3 at 5 p.m. For more information and to view her work on film, please visit <https://mimigarrarddance.com/>.

Additionally, Mimi Garrard's videodances may be viewed or on YouTube: www.youtube.com/mimigarrarddance. Her videodances are featured on Manhattan Neighborhood Network (MNN) Channel 2 on cable in Manhattan twice a month on Sundays at 5 p.m. They are also simultaneously Webcast with streaming video at www.mnn.org.

Her video work has received first place awards in festivals in most major cities including Paris, London, Rome, Berlin, Athens, Tokyo, Los Angeles, Barcelona, and many cities in India. A complete list of first place awards in 2023 is attached.
