We will practice being in pleasure and giving our bodies a voice. A practice of growing a new body, as one would grow a plant; a utopian body; a sensational body; a connected body; an anarchic body; a body in pleasure... with a flesh & bones & guts & skin brain... with eyes that see without naming, they see without knowing.

luciana achugar is a Brooklyn-based choreographer from Uruguay whose work is concerned with the post-colonial world, searching for an undoing of current power structures from the inside out. She is a two-time "Bessie" recipient, a Guggenheim Fellow and Creative Capital Grantee and is a current NYFA Fellow. Her latest work, An Epilogue for OTRO TEATRO: True Love, was nominated for a 2016 Bessie Award.
