Hello Everyone!

I'm excited to announce that the film, "Moving Gracefully Towards the Exit", has been entered into an online film Festival called We Speak, Here. I'm reaching out to you because the film could potentially receive an award based on the number of views, and to an extent, the viewer comments. View the trailer here.

Please do take a look once more (if not for the first time) and help me spread the word. It's a 50 minute documentary. Carter Burwell created the sumptuous original score.

I am immensely proud of "Moving Gracefully...."and deliriously happy to be able to share it internationally, for a period of time, for free on the web with all of you in the NYC dance community.

Thank you!

Patrice
