Mårten Spångberg: 15 min, The Fastest Planet

The workshop explores modes of experiencing dance through the format of creating a work. The group will, at the same time, do a workshop and prepare a presentation for Judson Church – we have eight hours. An impossible project especially considering how Judson Church consolidates not form or function of dance but modes of experience. Our task is not to critique or revolt but to bypass from within. Something we will do through the corruption of form and function.
