Choreography = Possibility / Dance = Potentiality

This workshop - practices and examples, thinking and more examples - zoom in on the 2014 rise of dance "detached" from choreography and signification. A dance produced in a post-critical environment gaining momentum through contemporary phenomena, spiritual practices, digital interfaces and current modes of remixing, editing and combining. Today experience the coming of Dance 2.0, a dancing that can allow itself a proactive incompatibility with tradition and representation and we dance together.

Discussions

Wait A Second, The Mood Is Dancy, Theory Without Boox, We Will Hear

If we do it on the floor maybe it'll work better? Or we could, I dunno... it's not so important but I really like if you come. For serious. Like exorcism light and there'll be like blankets if you wanna have a nap. Maybe also like the mouthier version of La Substance... like the making-of but through talking. Theory in the studio, or studio theory but without study - kind of the same as dance - because it's great and we like. Really far from NYU closer to Whole Foods really almost next to alchemy and nail polish.
