Join Jacques d'Amboise, Charlotte d'Amboise, Billy Porter and more!

National Dance Institute (NDI), the non-profit arts education organization founded in 1976 by New York City Ballet principal dancer Jacques d'Amboise, announces its 2020 Star Party on Oct. 19 at 7p.m. This virtual benefit will be a livestream event featuring stars performing song and dance celebrating the cosmos. The evening will raise funds to bring NDI to under-resourced New York City public schools where arts education is at risk.

Performers and speakers include: Jacques d'Amboise, renowned ballet dancer and National Dance Institute founder; Charlotte d'Amboise, actress and dancer, and Terrence Mann, actor and signer; Ariana DeBose, actor/singer/dancer; Denys Drozdyuk and Antonina Skobina, Ballroom dancers; John Lithgow, actor/singer/dancer; Lloyd Knight, Martha Graham Dance Company principal dancer; Mandy Patinkin, actor and singer, and Kathryn Grody, actress and writer; Billy Porter, actor/singer/dancer; Chita Rivera, actor/singer/dancer; Leonardo Sandoval, tap dancer/Music From the Sole; Daniel Ulbricht, New York City Ballet principal dancer; Blakeley White-McGuire & Lorenzo Pagano, Martha Graham Dance Company dancers; Tony Yazbeck, Broadway actor/singer/dancer; and more.
