With a rotating roster of professional teachers who are active in the dance scene, NYC Community Ballet offers excellent classes by dancers for dancers. Because we are the community, we recognize the challenges dancers face, including finding affordable dance classes that are high enough quality to be deserving of our time and effort. a??Our classes are friendly to your wallet and your wellness! Classes are advanced level and designed for professional dancers of all stripes, thus we focus on a range of things you want to get out of a class: technique, freedom, artistry, a workout, community. Classes have a traditional ballet class structure but you're more likely to hear Rihanna than Rachmaninov. Currently all our classes are online via Zoom.
