Limón Dance Company comes back to The Joyce with two world premieres and two Limón masterworks. For one premiere, Dianne McIntyre, the legendary dancer/choreographer, has created a special solo for Roxane D'Orleans Juste, honoring her 30-year tenure with the company.

The other premiere features the exceptionally gifted choreographer Seán Curran, who has collaborated with composers Lucia Caruso and Pedro H. da Silva to create a full company work. Paired with these new creations will be Limón's musical gem Mazurkas, and Psalm, a ritual of rhythm and song that showcases the company's virtuosic ensemble dancing. Live music is featured on selected performances.
