Join us to celebrate the 2017/2018 NBDC training program. The program involves 10 months of intensive study in Nadine Bommer's movement language, an improvisational technique merging endless imagination and liquid physicality. This evening will present the program dancers in a run of the company's internationally acclaimed work Invisi'BALL.

This work transforms a cast of dancers into two teams of ultra-competitive male soccer players. With popular chants and roaring crowds, this unique theater-dance piece illustrates a surprising, hilarious, and multi-cultural mash-up of the game from the moment the audience arrives at the theater.
