DATE: FRI, FEB 7, 2025

TIME: 6:30pm Music Workshop / 7:30pm Family Show

Format: 75 minutes, performance for all ages/families at Flushing Town Hall's theater.

General Admission: $15 Adults / $12 Members / $8 Children

A dynamic celebration of West African music led by singer-songwriter and humanitarian Natu Camara. This performance will uplift young audiences with traditional music from Guinea infused with rock, jazz and storytelling. This will be sure to have you singing, clapping and dancing along!

"Camara uses her songs to bring people together, weaving a tapestry of musical stories and visions of her beloved home." - Bob Boilen, NPR

Music Workshop: The circle at Tchaguil (a small village in the Mamou region in Guinea):

The audience will Learn how to sing in SOUSSOU, and FULANI, the basics of creating harmony and melody in Afro-inspired music. Participants will work together to learn a song they will perform with Natu on stage.
