Jazz is an inclusive joyful style that incorporates dance technique and social dance within its lineage. Jessa's class blends jazz, musical theater, and storytelling, and shares both the technical steps and their origins. Class pacing and level are tailored to who is in the room for class, though options for intermediate dancers will be provided. Get your body moving with a guided warmup series (isolations, lunges, a plie/bend/balance sequence, and crunches). Then, we move into learning a combination that will expand over several classes. Please welcome Jessa, a new teaching artist to Dancewave! Jessa Rose (BA, MA) is a musical theater dancer and K-12 dance teacher. Open to all levels; no prior dance experience is necessary.
