Valentina Kozlova presents her Dance Conservatory Company in their new production of "Nutcracker Winter Suite," December 5 at 3 PM & 5:30 PM at Symphony Space, NYC. The one-hour production opens with the Snow Scene and continues with the traditional dances, including the Grand Pas de Deux, choreographed by Kozlova after the original. Margo Sappington has arranged the delightful, family-friendly production to the beloved Tchaikovsky score.

Dancers are drawn from Kozlova's midtown school and include outstanding talents who have received medals at ballet competitions as well as scholarships and company contracts.
