Set to a live score by Norwegian musician and composer Sverre Indris Joner, Lullaby is a thought provoking, contemporary metaphor of current international politics. Three young, dynamic and committed male dancers take a journey through friendship, rivalry and raw masculinity juxtaposed with the melodies of lullabies. Panta Rei from Oslo, Norway is known for their fast-paced, colorful, and theatrical choreography.

This production of Lullaby has been co-produced and financed by Scenekunst Østfold with support from Nodre Aker Bydel, oslo, Norway.

The tour is funded by Arts Council Norway, the Fund for Performing Artists, The Norwegian Arts hub and Norwegian Minstry of Foreign Affairs.

This season's dance series is sponsored by the SHS Foundation.
