Beg Jazz with Ellenore will focus is on breaking down the basics of jazz technique while also exploring musicality, storytelling and dynamics. The class is welcoming to newcomers and those who have taken class before but want a refresher course. Class will incorporate jazz technique, modern and contemporary styles as well.

About Ellenore: Ellenore Scott is a New York–based choreographer and performer. Scott most recently choreographed the Off-Broadway Revival of Little Shop of Horrors at the Westside Theater. Scott also served as the associate choreographer for Head Over Heels and King Kong on Broadway, and she was the assistant choreographer for the Broadway revivals of Cats and Falsettos. She choreographed Off-Broadway's Pride and Prejudice at Cherry Lane Theatre. Scott is the Artistic Director of ELSCO Dance, a New York City contemporary dance company. As a performer she was a finalist and an All-Star on the hit television show "So You Think You Can Dance." She performed on numerous television shows (Glee, Smash, The Ellen Show, The Blacklist, Marvelous Mrs. Maisel to name a few) and danced with Janet Jackson. Instagram: @ellenorescott
