The company makes its New York debut with three works displaying the elaborate partnering and athleticism that have characterized its aesthetic since 2009 when Pastor became its director. On tap is Emanuel Gat's Rite of Spring, whose frenetic Latin American dance movement set to Stravinsky music prompted Le Figaro to describe it as "salsa on top of a volcano." Two works by Pastor—Adagio & Scherzo, set to Schubert, and Moving Rooms, set to Schnittke and Górecki—complete the dazzling program.
