This isn't a workshop—it's a rehearsal for your future self ?

In Raja's approach of devised-danced-theatre, We don't do just steps. We definitely don't over polish. We do process. Through improvisation, conversation, performance, and mess, we'll unpack how you lead, how you move, how you make—and why any of it matters. You'll confront your habits, your ego, your aesthetic, your past lives. You'll dance, cry (maybe), write, direct, remix, fail, and try again.

We'll treat the studio like a lab, a stage, and a mirror. Expect to build stamina, sharpen your instincts, and remember why you started making work in the first place. This space is for people who want to burn something down and build something real in its place.

Bring your baggage. Bring your brilliance. Bring your lunch.
