Artist Professional Development & Fundraising Workshops

Join us this year with a special two-day workshops to learn more about Making Moves
 This two-workshop is funded in Part by Mertz Gilmore Foundation

April 28 & May 5, 2018

JCAL's Making Moves Dance Festival 2018 is a platform for emerging artists of all genres to be presented on professional stages at JPAC during the two-day festival that celebrates artists from all walks of life and cultures Presenting Bold Ideas. The workshops are organized to help artists better understand the application process for the Making Moves Dance Festival (MMDF).

The two-day workshop series offers an overview of the MMDF application process in a congenial joyful atmosphere. We have invited guest panelists from the dance, administration, and foundation sectors. All with advanced skills in arts administration, producing and marketing. Guest panelists will offer practical training and insight into the process of finding money and performance opportunities for your work in today's very competitive creative sector.

Please RSVP as space is limited!
