Visual artist Samantha Holmes, known for her large-scale metal and stone works and public art projects (including Hell Gate Cairns, an installation in NYC's Randall's Island and Riverside Park) and dancer-choreographer Colleen Thomas, whose recent work Light and Desire was praised for delivering "an implicit answer for how to get around the forces that silence women" by The New York Times, join forces for a free public event featuring RESTLESS, a dance performance on and around the newly-relocated sculpture MUNDILLO (LITTLE WORLD) in a celebration of women and their work. The event, free and open to the public.

Performed by dancers Colleen Thomas, Nadia Halim, Morgen Littlejohn, Sadi Mosko, and Kennedy Thomas, with cellist Lily Gelfand.

Performances at 1:00, 1:30, 2, and 2:30pm.

Presented by the New York City Department of Transportation's Art program in partnership with the Columbus Amsterdam Business Improvement District and the DOT Public Space Unit's Open Boulevards initiative.
