(Re)Union is the annual New York Performance presented by The Nathaniel Hunt Project. It is a collection of communities into one moment.

(Re)Union will showcase dance artists of a variety of backgrounds, ages, and abilities. It will feature Established Guest Artists that will share their incredible talents of performing or choreography

(Re)Union will feature TNHP's Artistic Director's latest creation "the others" originally choreographed in the summer of 2018 for Adaptations Dance Theater in Maui, HI. Along with a brand new cast of extraordinary dancers, TNHP is excited to share this very special piece with a New York audience.

Guest Artists/Choreographers include Rachel Hettinger, Clifton Brown, DeAndre Cousley, and more!
