Whether you want to watch the biggest game of the year, witness Usher's halftime show, or figure out if Taylor Swift makes it from Tokyo to cheer on Travis Kelce, grab a group of friends and head to SPIN for the Super Bowl LVIII Watch Party. The original ping pong social club will transform into the ultimate football tailgate experience, with big screens to ensure fans don't miss a single play. As NYers cheer on their favorite teams, guests can partake in tailgate games like corn hole, giant Jenga, Connect 4 and most importantly Ping Pong during commercial breaks adding to the electrifying atmosphere of the big game day. Throughout the game, guests will have access to an open bar (6-9pm only) and game day inspired bites served from 6-8pm (included in ticket price).
