Our SPLIT BILL Series brings together pairings of NYC-based movement artists.

BEATRIZ CASTRO

Beatriz Castro (she/they) is a movement artist from Costa Rica, currently based in New York City. She received a BFA in Dance and a BA in Business from Marymount Manhattan College where she performed in works by Earl Mosley, Anthony Morigerato, Chase Brock, Tami Stronach, and Sidra Bell. Since graduating, Beatriz has performed with NYC-based groups Spark Movement Collective and Verbal Animal. They have also appeared in HBO's Random Acts of Flyness and the On Running x MoMA PS1 campaign under the direction of Damani Pompey. Internationally, she has performed self-choreographed work at the Graciela Moreno Choreographers Festival, the longest-running contemporary dance event in Costa Rica. They have presented work at Arts On Site, Bridge for Dance, Green Space, Triskelion Arts and Dixon Place. Beatriz has been awarded residencies for the exploration and development of new work through the Downtown Brooklyn Partnership, MOTiVE Brooklyn, and Pepatián: Bronx Arts CoLABorative. www.beacastrom.com @beacastrom

EFFY GREY

Effy Grey (they/them) is a dance artist, photographer and veterinary technician living in Brooklyn, NY. They started dancing by taking elective classes at Ohio State University while obtaining a bachelor's degree in Zoology. Effy worked with wonderful local choreographers in Columbus for both dance and aerial arts as well as being supported through a Columbus Dances Fellowship. After moving to Brooklyn, though guided towards dance photography, opportunities came to perform with BoyFriday, Baira MVMNT PHLSPHY and Coco Karol while cultivating a process to create their own work. In 2019 Effy was a Fellow for the Leimay OUTSIGHT series, which was performed in NYC as a quartet and Berlin as a solo, focusing on connection, hope and a touch of queerness. Effy is still continuing to advance those themes within their physicality and storytelling to generate more accessibility to less explored queer and social experiences. www.effygrey.com @greywitch6
